PUBLIC DISCUSSION ON AGENDA ITEMS:

Finance: Councilman Pivovarnik stated that all Borough invoices are being paid and informed everyone that the finance meeting scheduled last week had been canceled and a new meeting needs to be scheduled

Public Works: Thomas Santoro read the monthly report for the street department. They have 280 tons of salt, ready for the winter season. Also, Tom mentioned that concrete has been poured on McKean Ave as part of the construction going through town.

Parks and Recreation: Jerry Jericho gave a report on the progression of the park project. He stated that he has some concerns that need to be fixed. Paul Pivovarnik questioned why the inspectors are not catching the mistakes that are happening and that we need to check with them. Kristin Hopkins mentioned that Santa will be coming to town. Festivities will not be held at the Market House this year, she would like them to be over at Magic City Square.

Code, Fire EMS and Animal Control: James Stache read the code enforcement report at the agenda meeting last week. Robert Whiten Jr read the EMS and Animal reports and Matt Prentice gave the fire department report. Matt also mentioned that they have some cash bash tickets for sale for their fundraiser on November 22, 2025

Personnel: No report at this time

Police: Kristin Hopkins read the police report for each municipality. Jerry Jericho mentioned that the police board has hired 2 full-time officers to replace officers that have retired.

Community Planning: Larry Celaschi stated that there will be a time capsule dedication for the Corning Glass Plant. It will be held December 1, 2025 at noon at the Meadow Avenue Park. He also informed everyone that the mural cannot be painted because of the wall being made of sandstone. They may have to paint the mural on some type of sheeting instead. Larry Celaschi then asked council members if they would consider giving the employees turkeys and hams for the holiday season.
